

Brotherhood Chairman

1. Responsibility of the Brotherhood Chairman
 - A. To supervise all chapter matters relating to the Brotherhood ceremony.
- II. Duties of the Brotherhood ceremony
 - A. Organize the Brotherhood ceremony
 1. Get an adequate number of Brotherhood teams: one for every 25-30 candidates.
 2. Help prepare the teams - make sure that they are practicing.
 3. Make sure that the proper number of sites are prepared.
 4. Make certain that the teams are ready.
 - B. Work with the Lodge Brotherhood Chairman
 1. Provide personnel for questioning period.
 2. Verify completion of Brotherhood candidate progress cards
 - C. Other Duties
 1. Make sure all candidates attend their assigned ceremony.
 2. Make sure there are enough cards and sashes.
 3. Be ready to answer all questions regarding the Brotherhood.
 4. Help plan and organize chapter ceremonial team lock-in or other activity.
 5. Encourage new Ordeal members to work for completion of Brotherhood requirements by having a program at chapter meetings explaining requirements.
- III. Other duties of the Brotherhood Chairman
 - A. Work with other officers and chairman to promote troops as needed to achieve 100% camp promotion.
 - B. Complete any other jobs assigned to you by the Chapter Chief.