

SHAWNEE LODGE ELANGOMAT AND NIMAT INFORMATION

WHAT IS AN ELANGOMAT?

Elangomat means friend.

They are a friend to the candidate during their Ordeal, and lead them through their service. The Elangomat is also an example to the candidate, showing the candidate how to keep the silence and give cheerful service. The Elangomat is ultimately the shining example of what an ideal Arrowman is by way of their attitude and actions. Elangomats are leaders, role models, and friends.

WHAT IS A NIMAT?

Nimat means brother.

They are a Brother to the newly inducted Arrowmen, and they support and guide their brothers on their journey to Brotherhood. A Nimat informs these new Arrowmen about upcoming events in the OA, and answers any questions they may have. This role is extremely important in supporting scouts and also helping members stay active within our order.

WHY WOULD THIS INTEREST YOU?

Being an Elangomat/Nimat is one of the earliest ways you can become more involved in the OA. Each of these opportunities can provide you with huge leadership skills, ceremonial skills, speaking skills, and also can help you become more well known and likely to become an officer. Both of these roles also help expand your own chapter, as well as allow you to support the newer scouts joining our order. By becoming an Elangomat or Nimat, you can expand upon your skills as well as create a difference within our order.
